Hasan Consultants celebrates 25th year

Hasan Consultants, a Ventura civil and environmental engineering firm, celebrated its 25th year in business on Aug. 22 with a party at Arroyo Verde Park in Ventura.

Owner Mohammed A. Hasan received proclamations and certificates of commendation from Oxnard Mayor Tom Holden, Ventura Mayor Christy Weir, Ventura County Supervisor John Zaragoza, California Assemblyman Pedro Nava, D-Santa Barbara, and U.S. Rep. Elton Gallegly, R-Simi Valley.

A resident of Ventura, Hasan started the company in 1984 after working for Ventura Regional County Sanitation District and the city of Oxnard as utilities superintendent. Involved in community services in the county for more than 34 years, Hasan has served as president of Ventura East Rotary, among other charitable endeavors.
